THIS MATTER is before the court on defendant's pro se Motion for Early Termination of Supervision (#67). The court has carefully considered the motion and consulted with the probation officer supervising defendant's release. After careful review of defendant's performance while on supervised release, pretrial services agrees that defendant is a good candidate for early termination. Considering defendant's list of accomplishments while on supervised release, it appears that the judgment of this court has been fully carried out inasmuch as defendant is fully engaged in the workforce, has purchased a new home, and is a contributing participant in the life of his family and his community. Having considered defendant's motion and reviewed the pleadings, the court enters the following Order.

ORDER

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that defendant's Motion for Early Termination of Supervision (#67) is GRANTED, and supervision is TERMINATED successfully.
